

SANGHARAKSHITA IN SEMINAR

MITRA RETREAT QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS 1985

CONTENTS

- 1-2      Conditioned coproduction, God the creator and no perceptible first beginning
Going beyond subject and object
Conditioned coproduction's uniqueness to Buddhism
- 3        The arising of ignorance in the nidana chain
Ignorance underlying all of the nidanas
- 3-4     Is a Buddha subject to the law of karma?
- 5        Dakinis and Dakas and Dharmapalas
Literal-mindedness and making the mind more subtle
- 7        A hierarchy of buddhas?
The Trikaya
- 8        The Buddha answering a question after three requests
Are there too many options of 'spiritual' lifestyle in the west?
The importance of continuing to do something for two or three years
- 10      Is number seven a magical number in the Udana?
Not speaking a falsehood, even for a joke?
- 11      Were Mahayanists taking the Bodhisattva Vow too literally? (i.e. not entering nirvana until all beings are saved)
Steering between being over literal and over metaphorical
- 12      Specific areas in which Bhante found mindfulness difficult to maintain
'Sorting out' one's sexuality by the age of thirty
- 13      Marriage 'vows' and Going Forth
- 13      Traditionally a married man Going Forth with his wife's consent
- 15      Chanting mantras at the end of pujas?
- 16      Can one kill out of compassion to save others from harm?
Dealing with ethical dilemmas
- 17      Second session - question based on 'The Udana'
- 18      The centrality of the Going for Refuge including the arising of the Bodhicitta
The basic Buddhist act - Going for Refuge
- 19      Asking people to wait before Going for Refuge
- 20      Positive and negative seeking of approval
Negating or affirming the self?
- 21      Some differences between Buddhist and other Indian cosmology and hierarchies of gods
- 22      Questions from the Life of the Buddha by Nanamoli
- 23      The Buddha performing miracles and using his supernormal powers
- 24      Mahaprajapati putting pressure on the Buddha and His response
- 25      Bhante's 'System of Meditation'
- 26      'Let thyself be known, know thyself' as applied to The Buddha
Walking meditation in the FWBO
- 27      Giving more emphasis to applied meditation
Can humour be creative?
The Buddha's use of irony

- 27 English humour and Bhante's attempts to eradicate it from the FWBO
Cynicism
- 28 The Hinayana's narrowing conception of the Arahant in terms of the diminution of their ability to communicate Communication of the dharma
- 29 Reading texts and sutras out loud
- 30 Tibetan Oracles
- 31 Learning Pali and Sanskrit
- 32 Being well mannered in one's dealings with others
The need to be more sensitive
Meeting regularly and in large numbers
- 34 The lack of black Africans in the FWBO
FWBO activities being financially self-supporting
- 35 Criteria for Going for Refuge.