

The Venerable Sangharakshita
Question and Answer Session in Christchurch, New Zealand,
Wednesday 25th, April 1979

Contents

- 2 What is Buddhism
- Life after death
- 3 No reward, punishment or sacrifice in Buddhism
- 4 The new society in the nuclear/atomic age
- 5 Conflict with society and the Movement
- 6 Does the Enlightenment experience keep developing?
- 7 Generosity - Give what you can, take what you need.
- 8 What is positive emotion?
- Communal living and being solitary
- 9 What is Right Livelihood?
- 10 The extended family and the nuclear family
- 11 The Buddha's annoyance and disgust with people in the Pali Canon
- 12 Trying to distinguish spiritual experience from pathological disorder!
- 13 Aggression is not necessarily negative
- LSD and spiritual experiences?
- 14 'The big happy family is not the highest ideal of Buddhism'
- 15 Not bringing up children as Buddhists
- 16 Types of Community
- 18 The need to work - for psychological health - and not to depend on alms
- 19 The importance of enjoying meditation
- 20 Buddha pride
- 21 Losing yourself in order to find yourself
- 22 Dealing with negative emotions
- 23 Beware of 'imitating'
- Has Bhante experienced Enlightenment?
- What is Enlightenment?
- 25 The Kundalini and sitting straight in meditation.